

State of the Company Report

Q1 2026

Everything we do is Because of YOU®

The following Q1 2026 State of the Company report will provide you with a good view into the organization and operations of one of the nation's largest title insurance underwriters. WFG National Title Insurance Company is a key component of the Williston Financial Group, along with our appraisal management company, "Valustrust," and our technology subsidiary "MyHome, a Williston Financial Group Company™."

The WFG companies are focused on using technology to enhance the real estate process and view our role as being a part of that process focused on improving communication, reducing the rekeying of data, and facilitating a smooth and efficient process.

Our goal is to take time and cost out of the real estate process while enhancing the experience for all involved.

In addition to the data enclosed, please note that the Williston Financial Group has zero institutional debt, significant surplus capital, and a commitment to grow, through a total focus on the success of our clients, consumers, and business partners. If you are successful and profitable, we will be successful and profitable.

Thank you,

MISSION STATEMENT

COLLABORATE

COMMUNICATE • COLLABORATE • CO-EXIST

The Williston Financial Group family of businesses (WFG) are built upon the directive to communicate, collaborate and co-exist—represented in its logo by three Cs. WFG understands that it has no purpose without its clients, and that its success is dependent entirely upon the success of its partners and customers. Client focus manifests itself through constant communication and an unconditional willingness to collaborate at every opportunity. By exercising communication and collaboration, WFG integrates with its client processes and co-exists for the consumer's benefit.

Take time and cost out of real estate
transactions®

OUR MISSION

TAKE TIME AND COST OUT OF REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS

WFG is dedicated to taking time and cost out of real estate transactions. By focusing on the client and their processes, WFG will help compress the time required to close a loan and/or transfer real property ownership. By empowering industry professionals with integrated technologies, WFG will provide efficient high quality products and services. By enabling client processes, WFG will increase closing rates. By minimizing corporate infrastructure, WFG will avoid operating a costly hierarchical organization.

ORGANIZATION

COMPANY OVERVIEW

Williston Financial Group (WFG®) is a holding company that operates a national title insurer and multiple complementary operating companies. WFG began operations in 2010. Golden Gate Capital is its largest shareholder. WFG National Title Insurance Company is currently licensed and operating in 49 states and the District of Columbia. WFG operates three distinct business divisions: company-owned title operations (Direct Operations), Agency Operations, and Enterprise Solutions.

WFG has Direct Operations in Washington, Oregon, Arizona, Nevada, New Mexico, Texas, Colorado and California. Our Direct Operations subscribe to automated title indexes and employ technologically enabled production systems. Management is metric driven with client service and satisfaction as the primary goal.

Currently, WFG has over 1,700 independent title insurance agents issuing WFG title policies in 49 states. This agency network is connected by and serviced through “TitleNet,” a proprietary Electronic Partner Network (EPN) that allows our clients to electronically order and receive title information and products in the top 75 SMSAs. Agency approval and onboarding is an extensive and detailed process ensuring that all vendors of WFG title policies are certified and dependable. Prior to approving an agent, WFG conducts background checks and reviews operating processes and financial safeguards, all designed to protect the consumer. Unlike any competitor, WFG maintains a firewall between Agency Operations and agency approval, ensuring there are no internal conflicts of interest.

WFG’s Enterprise Solutions group comprises Lender Services, Default Services, Equity Title Services, National Title Production Services and Valustrust (National Appraisal Management Services). This group services institutionally controlled businesses looking for a centralized provider capable of processing and coordinating appraisal, title and closing services, nationally. Because of the centralized and automated processes within each business unit, WFG is able to offer highly competitive pricing, unparalleled service, rigorous quality control and follow-through.

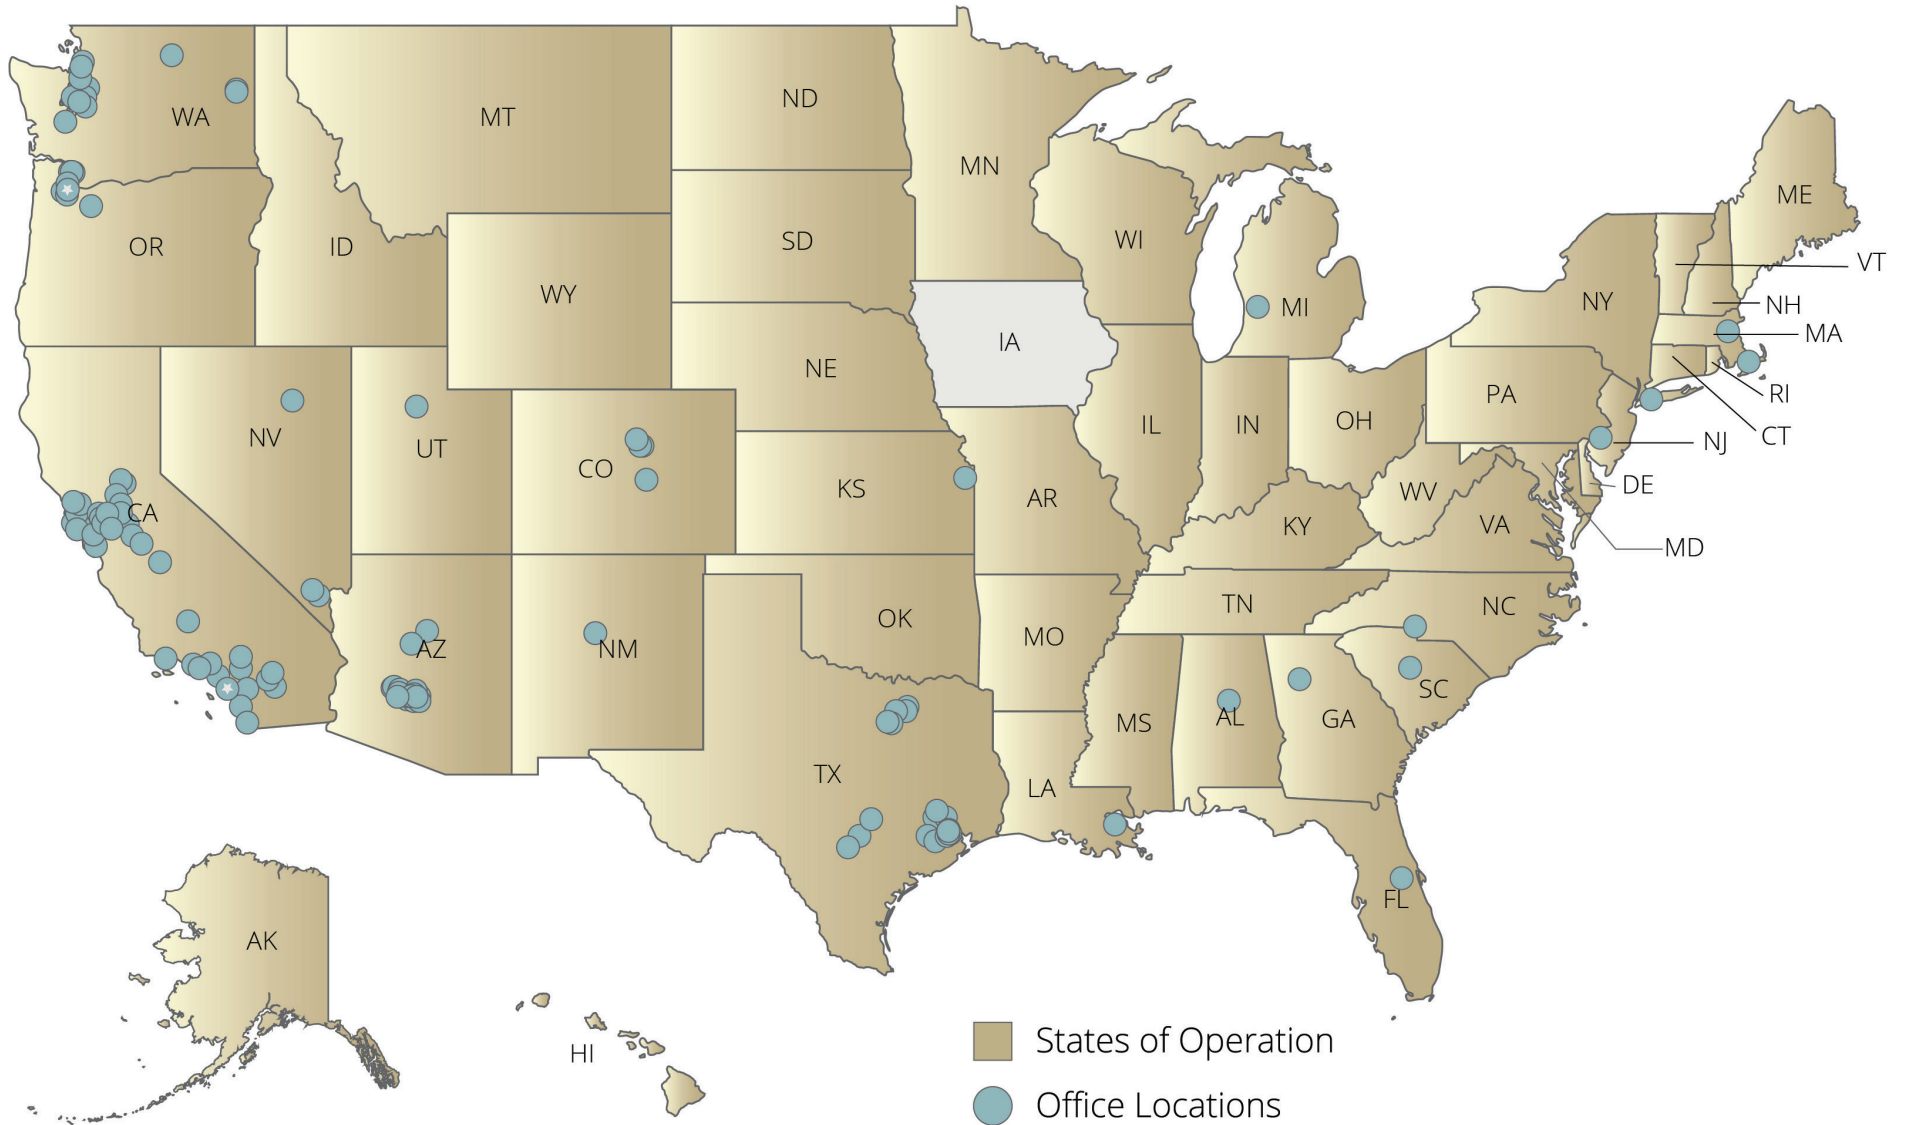

WFG’s corporate structure comprises Administration, Legal, Compliance and Audit, Finance, Vendor Management, Information Technology, Information Security, Human Resources, Purchasing and Facilities. WFG’s ability to centralize these functions enables us to minimize costs by operating with a flat management structure. The executive leadership of WFG has extensive experience and is available to clients to provide rapid and effective problem resolution.

The WFG culture is defined by our mission statement, “Take time and cost out of the real estate transaction” and our motto, “Communicate, Collaborate, Co-exist®.”

REINSURANCE PARTNERS

WFG retains the first $5 million of liability on each policy written. WFG has entered into reinsurance agreements with a number of highly rated Lloyds of London syndicates, international reinsurers and a domestic title insurer to automatically reinsure all WFG policy liabilities from $5 to $30 million. WFG reinsures policy liabilities in excess of $30 million on a facultative basis through some of the same reinsurers and other title insurers.

FINANCE AND ACCOUNTING TEAM

WFG's finance and accounting group performs the following core functions with centralized processes, systems and management oversight: financial accounting, trust accounting, statutory and regulatory accounting, banking and investment management, and financial planning and analysis.

WFG's Finance and Accounting team includes certified public accountants, industry experienced personnel and other credentialed professionals.

INDEPENDENT AUDITS

WFG's insurance underwriter, WFG National Title Insurance Company, undergoes compulsory annual audits, multi-year domiciliary Department of Insurance audits and periodic limited financial and controls audits.

WFG National Title Insurance Company's domiciliary regulator is the Florida Department of Financial Services.

BDO USA, LLP is the company's independent accounting firm, conducting annual audits of WFG's underwriter and other affiliates.

COMPLIANCE

WFG's 10 Compliance Core Values

1. Corporate Governance Structure
2. Licensed & Insured Operations
3. Internal Controls & Monitoring
4. Legal & Regulatory Monitoring
5. Policies & Procedures including industry Best Practices
6. Human Resources Prudent Employee Practices
7. Information Security & Privacy
8. Training
9. Consumer Complaints Best Practices
10. Compliance Reviews & Audit

The WFG® family of companies takes compliance very seriously. Whether federal, state or local regulation, WFG's Compliance and Audit Department is dedicated to strict adherence to all laws, regulations and best practices affecting the business of title insurance underwriting, settlement services and appraisal management.

WFG's compliance culture begins with the company's board of directors and senior executives maintaining a strong corporate and governance structure, our #1 Compliance Core Value. The Williston Financial Group board of directors and chief executive officer have empowered WFG's chief compliance officer to create, monitor and maintain a compliant corporate environment and retain oversight of this function. Action under this authority is evidenced through supporting documentation which sets forth the WFG Compliance Program and Compliance Management System, further exhibiting WFG's commitment to its 10 Compliance Core Values.

WFG's chief compliance officer, together with members of the Compliance and Audit Department, are charged with creating, communicating, training, monitoring and auditing all segments of the WFG Compliance Program. Ongoing support and continual tracking and resolution of consumer complaints are the shared responsibility of the Compliance and Audit Department and management team of each business unit.

WFG's expanded compliance program meets the stricter demands of today's compliance environment. By actively collaborating and communicating, not only with WFG's employees, but with customers, lenders and agents faced with new compliance requirements of the Dodd-Frank Act, Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB), and growing privacy regulations, WFG further demonstrates its commitment of co-existing for the consumer's benefit.

In addition to, and in support of, the Compliance and Audit Department, the company maintains a standing Risk Management Committee. Currently the committee is made-up of 15 state, regional and department managers and legal counsel, each contributing to the committee from unique areas of expertise and experience. The committee serves to advise, inform and educate the Compliance and Audit Department and WFG staff with regards to current regulatory activity, as well as current market trends that may give rise to compliance issues or concerns while addressing risk strategies.

WFG HOME AND WFG PORTAL

Internal Employee Access

WFG HOME and WFG PORTAL are the repositories for the WFG Compliance Program library of documents, tools and other resources for WFG employees.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Including Industry Best Practices

WFG's Policies and Procedures are consistent with recognized industry best practices for title insurance and settlement providers, address compliance with applicable federal consumer financial laws and are in accordance with board-approved policies. Each policy and procedure is maintained and modified to remain current and are readily accessible via the WFG Home and WFG Portal to serve as a reference for employees in their day-to-day activities. WFG also has Policy and Procedure templates available for WFG's independent title insurance agents who wish to build a custom compliance package and CMS program through the WFG Agency website.

WFG NEWSLETTER

Employee and Agent Communications

In the rapidly changing regulatory arena, we understand the importance of communicating with our employees and agents on an ongoing basis. Our monthly compliance publication, TheFourthC, keeps the employees of the WFG family of companies informed of the latest in corporate compliance news and industry best practices. In addition, there are state and regional compliance newsletters that are produced from the WFG Agency Department.

WFG COMPLIANCE CHAMPIONS

WFG's Compliance Champions are WFG employees who have been chosen by their manager to represent their office as innovation experts. They assist in growing a culture of compliance and ethics through collaboration and education, with a goal of excellence and integrity in all business practices. The Compliance Champions work closely with the Compliance and Audit Department to enhance the discovery and delivery of compliance information to WFG business units and their associates.

MYWFG LEARNING VAULT

Employee e-Learning Management System

Today's changing regulatory and compliance environment, as well as the demands of customers, requires a strong corporate commitment to compliance, employee education and training. At WFG, compliance is our fourth "c." The corporate compliance commitment is communicated and delivered to WFG employees through TheFourthC, WFG's compliance newsletter, as well as through the launch of MyWFG Learning Vault, WFG's employee e-Learning platform. This platform makes available numerous on-demand mandatory training courses on compliance, corporate-wide policies and procedures, career growth and supervisory training. Easy access to training programs, in which attendance is tracked and recorded, allows WFG to support the growth of employees and prioritize our commitment to compliance.

To accompany WFG's training and education initiatives, WFG's Agency Department provides agent training seminars to its agent network throughout the country. In addition, training materials including webinars can be accessed through WFG's Agent website.

INDEPENDENT TITLE INSURANCE & CLOSING AGENT CERTIFICATION

WFG Agency appointment and management processes include the agent application, onboarding if approved, periodic audits, continual monitoring, and recertification or termination should issues arise. WFG is committed to strengthening each of these processes in establishing a compliant agent-certification program.

AGENT APPLICATION

The WFG agent approval/appointment guidelines include requests for, and review of, the following information:

- Review agency financials
- General information regarding the agency
- E&O, Fidelity and Surety bond coverage
- Agency history
- Agency qualifications
- Personal information
- Review criminal/credit background checks
- Description of mix of business
- Description of accounting and escrow processes
- Business and bank references
- Agency organizational documents
- Trust account reconciliations

ONBOARDING

Once approved, all agents go through a detailed onboarding process that starts with the review and execution of an Agency Agreement. The Agency Agreement contains all terms and conditions outlining the agent's responsibilities and restrictions.

AUDITING

WFG's Compliance and Audit Department conducts audits of agents on a regular basis or in accordance with state statutory guidelines, where applicable.

The agency audit objectives are to review and evaluate the agent's procedures in order to ensure the accuracy and reliability of escrow trust accounts, reconciliations, files and general closing procedures. In addition, the review is designed to assist in the protection of WFG and WFG customers from potential fraud, potential losses and to ensure the integrity of the agents operations.

MONITORING

WFG continually monitors and reports certain key indicators based upon agents trends-including but not limited to-correlations between issuance of closing protection letters and policy remittance, non or low remitters, timing of remittances compared to policy effective dates, other unusual remittance trends and claims-to-premium ratios.

WFG firmly believes the best approach to maintaining a quality agency network and minimizing risk is by having first-hand knowledge of each specific agent, as well as maintaining ongoing relationships with the agents, including their principals and key personnel. Because of these important relationships, WFG strives to maintain appropriate agent-to-agency representative ratios.

TRUST ACCOUNTING CONTROLS

Daily trust account reconciliations are a key control covering the safety of client fiduciary funds. WFG's Corporate Trust Accounting Group compares incoming and outgoing bank transaction data to its title and escrow production systems for identification of unmatched or unauthorized transactions. Any discrepancy is researched and accounted for promptly.

Month-end procedures include an even more comprehensive three-way reconciliation between bank, book and escrow trial balances, ensuring funds have been accounted for properly at an individual client file level. Outstanding check listings and trial balances are reviewed regularly by escrow administration personnel for timely research and resolution of reconciling items, stale checks and dormant funds. These reconciliations are reviewed and approved by a management-level individual other than the preparer.

WFG utilizes positive pay systems in order to minimize the risk of fraudulent activity.

The WFG Board of Directors is elected by the shareholders to oversee management and to ensure that the long-term interests of the shareholders are being served. In consideration of the long-term interests of shareholders, the board recognizes the importance of considering and addressing the interests of the company's practices, goals and objectives, including policyholders, employees and the marketplace in which the company conducts its business.

The board holds four or more regularly scheduled meetings during the year, at which it reviews and discusses reports by management on the operational and financial performance of the company, immediate issues facing the company and its plans and opportunities. In addition to its general oversight of management, the board or its committees also perform a number of specific functions, including:

- Reviewing, advising, approving and monitoring fundamental financial, business strategies and major corporate actions.
- Assessing major risks facing the company and reviewing options for their mitigation.
- Selecting, evaluating and compensating the CEO and overseeing CEO succession planning.
- Providing advice and counsel to the CEO and senior management.
- Providing counsel and oversight on the selection, evaluation, development and compensation of senior management.
- Ensuring processes are in place to maintain the integrity of the company, including the integrity of the financial statements, regulatory compliance and reporting.

WFG's board also assesses the company's risk management policies and procedures as well as coordinates and integrates committee responsibilities relating to risk oversight.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

In accordance with Department of Insurance guidelines, all WFG officers, directors and key management personnel are required to submit annual disclosures to the company's board of directors in order to report any potential conflicts of interest.

ENTERPRISE RISK MANAGEMENT (ERM)

Top Five Risks Targeted by Management

CYBERFRAUD: Technology attacks with the intent of stealing data and distracting operations are on the rise. Since the beginning of 2021, Ransomware attacks alone have increased 151%. To protect itself and its customers, WFG has added additional security procedures and continuously trains its information technology and security staff to quickly identify and mitigate technology attacks.

AGENT DEFALCATION: Audits of agent trust accounts and financial data.

FORGERY/FRAUD AND WIRE FRAUD: Training of employees and agents requiring review of certain transactions, such as titles that appear to have no mortgage, mortgage releases without any connection to another transaction and significant cash-out transactions. Wire fraud of seller's proceeds and other disbursements through escrow is on the rise in the settlement service industry through email hacking and social engineering. WFG has added additional security protocols to ensure the safety of funds placed in our trust accounts.

MARKET FORCES IN THE OVERALL REAL ESTATE MARKET: Making use of metrics-driven data to closely monitor and control costs in an effort to withstand market fluctuations.

COMPETITOR PREDATORY ACTIONS TO GAIN MARKET SHARE AT THE EXPENSE OF SOUND BUSINESS PRACTICES AND ASSUMING UNWISE RISKS: Making sound financial decisions to maintain policyholder protection and sound underwriting.

WFG's governance structure supports effective risk management through board access, authority and management reporting relationships for risk managers. The WFG Board regularly receives, discusses and understands reports on risk positions and the company's risk-management programs.

Risk-management policies and procedures are clearly stated and broadly communicated internally to company management, employees and stakeholders.

AGENCY

As outlined earlier in this report, WFG has a strict application process for agents who wish to become WFG agents. All applicants must submit a five-page application that requires information on the applicant's experience, claims history, errors and omissions insurance, accounting system and personnel. The application requires a list of all bank accounts used by the agent. The applicant must submit three references and their contact information.

ON-SITE AUDIT

WFG requires an on-site audit of all agents and a review of agents' escrow accounts, underwriting and claims practices, policy inventory, security arrangements and files.

BULLETINS TO AGENTS/EDUCATION OF WFG EMPLOYEES

WFG employs experienced auditors who recognize fraudulent practices by title agents. WFG managers and underwriting counsel regularly review newsletters and articles relating to escrow practices and title insurance published by American Land Title Association, October Research and others. Whenever reports of fraudulent schemes appear in these publications, WFG sends a bulletin via email to all WFG employees and agents, advising them of the scheme and instructing them on ways to be mindful of such fraudulent practices.

FRAUD INVESTIGATION/REPORTING

If WFG receives a report of a suspected fraudulent act, an auditor is assigned to investigate the matter immediately. If WFG's auditor finds evidence of a fraudulent act, the activity is reported to appropriate law enforcement and other regulatory authorities engaged in the investigation and prosecution of insurance fraud.

RESTITUTION

WFG will pursue restitution for financial loss caused by insurance fraud, when appropriate, if there is a realistic expectation of recovery from the person or entity that caused the loss.

At WFG, we understand that the importance of being a good employer starts with an employee's introduction to the company. The Human Resources Department works to enable growth for the organization through recruitment, professional development and retention of top talent within its diverse and positive work environment.

We are human-centric and we approach issues from every angle. Our focus is not just on process improvements; we take the time to understand what is important for the business and our employees. This is evident in the culture that we have created within WFG. We put our focus on evaluating our employees' values and fostering healthy employee experiences, from enforcing policies on workplace conduct to honoring the need for a balanced work-life schedule.

Our benefits plans and programs address all aspects of health and wellness care, from mind and body and extending to include financial wellness and personal coaching. By providing these robust programs, it helps benefit employee recruitment, retention, and productivity.

At WFG, we cultivate a culture of socially-conscious employees. We value purpose and demonstrate our commitment by using our voice to stand on issues of importance, from gender and racial equality, to mental health and the environment. Social responsibility will continue to be on the corporate agenda in the new decade and beyond.

We are an equal opportunity employer and adhere to Equal Employment Opportunity Commission guidelines.

WFG is committed to maintaining customer confidentiality. As such, any non-public personal information (NPI) obtained is protected as follows:

- WFG restricts access to confidential information to authorized individuals.
- WFG maintains physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that protect confidential information.
- WFG does not disclose information about its current or former customers to anyone, except as permitted or required by law.
- WFG ensures the privacy of communications between its customers and WFG servers via encryption.

Because of the potential risk to WFG, its employees and customers, data loss and identity theft are significant concerns. WFG has adopted a privacy policy, administered by the chief information security officer who also serves as the chief privacy officer, to help protect the company and its employees, customers and vendors from damage related to the loss or misuse of sensitive information. WFG complies with federal and state guidelines to protect the personal information of employees, customers and vendors and requires employee training covering the proper handling of customer NPI.

UNDERWRITING & CLAIMS

OVERVIEW

WFG® is available coast to coast to serve your title insurance underwriting and claims needs. WFG has experienced legal staff throughout the nation, available to aid in the resolution of any title problems that may arise.

At a time when large companies are automating, off-shoring and depersonalizing their systems, WFG is committed to building a company unmatched in the title industry, one founded on personal attention provided by experienced title experts.

WFG's underwriting staff averages over 25 years of experience in the title insurance business. With 42 dedicated underwriters, backed by managers and title officers with deep underwriting experience from California to Massachusetts, there is always someone available to respond to any underwriting issues.

WFG's claims division is able to personally, cooperatively, competently and quickly respond to any pressing title claim concerns. WFG does not forget clients when the insured transaction is completed. WFG is there when needed, long after the closing, when the most difficult problems can arise.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

WFG's enterprise technology platform has been architected to support and extend WFG's cornerstone principles to "Communicate, Collaborate, Co-exist[®]" by providing a unified environment that brings our employees, partners, and customers together to conduct transactions securely and efficiently. Powered by MyHome, a Williston Financial Group Company[™] – WFG's technology subsidiary – the platform orchestrates all aspects of title and escrow production across WFG's direct, agency, lender, and specialty lines of business.

WFG's technology foundation is built on five key pillars:

- 1. Common operating system. Every facet of the company's business is conducted on a single production platform – a unique advantage among national settlement services companies. Operating on a single platform enables WFG to harmonize and streamline processes, provide centralized production services, leverage technology investments across all of its businesses, support its business continuity plan, and efficiently train and support its users and partners.
- 2. Partner integration framework. WFG has developed integration layers for its partners and vendors in all categories to make it easy to work with us, improve accuracy, and speed delivery. Built on industry standards, we offer specialized interfaces for title agent production systems, default services providers, and loan origination systems. WFG integrates with vendors and product providers across the entire continuum of the production and settlement process.
- 3. Consumer collaboration. WFG's MyHome[®] collaboration portal brings all parties together into a common space to provide transaction status, collect data and documents, sign, schedule, and deliver wire instructions securely to ensure transparency and service while reducing risk. MyHome is available for web and mobile users and is a major driver of the company's consumer satisfaction metrics.
- 4. Enterprise security architecture. Information security is woven inextricably into every aspect of technology development and support at WFG. WFG is a demonstrated industry thought leader in security and has invested significantly in securing every segment of our production platform and internal business systems. WFG's vigilance extends to security training and education for its employees and partners, to stay ahead of the ever-evolving threat landscape with solutions that empower its business without impeding it.
- 5. Data vault. The WFG data warehouse provides its users with critical business intelligence and decision making support across all WFG[®] operations, and significantly enhances our value proposition to partners and vendors by reducing the time and effort to collect and hydrate information and enhance its accuracy and completeness. Our business intelligence practice has invested significantly in highly performant data extraction and transformation patterns, process automation, and dynamic and powerful reporting to deliver insight to our users in real time, with the flexibility to continuously mine information to identify new opportunities for efficiency, automation, and process improvement.

WFG's technology practice is built foremost on the principle that automation and ease of integration increases opportunities to reduce cost, save time throughout the transaction, and provide a more efficient experience for all parties. WFG's focus on centralization and shared processes supports its business continuity goals and enables a sophisticated information security practice companywide. In addition, this directive allows WFG to rapidly innovate and deploy products, features, and enhancements and deliver them with integrated training that supports its users, partners, and customers in every phase of the transaction.

DISASTER RECOVERY & BUSINESS CONTINUITY

WFG's Disaster Recovery and Business Continuity Plan was designed so that WFG's family of companies can act expeditiously when disruptive events occur — whether that's a worldwide pandemic, hurricane, or simply a power outage caused by elements outside of our control. The plan illustrates how employees will communicate, where they will go, and how they will be able to continue to provide services to their customers. The overall objective, which has been proven successful, is to ensure that WFG® has the proper framework in place to minimize any effect on operations and return to business as usual as quickly as possible.

Adverse events are classified into the following categories based primarily on anticipated duration and potential monetary loss:

- Low impact
- Medium impact
- High impact
- Highest impact

Adverse events impacting the company's facilities and workflow are addressed in a progressive manner, by shifting critical functions to alternate company production facilities.

The company hosts its mission-critical operational software in the following environments:

- Primary collocated data center, including N+1 Power, Network, and HVAC redundancy with state-of-the-art physical access controls.
- Geographically separate secondary collocated data center, including N+1 Power, Network, and HVAC redundancy with state-of-the-art physical access controls.
- Continuous data replication between locations to facilitate fail-over, fail-back, and data restoration capabilities.

The Disaster Recovery and Business Continuity Plan takes advantage of WFG's flexible and secure network architecture to quickly address events of increasing severity, including:

- Single server outage
- Loss of network connectivity
- Loss of data storage
- Loss of power
- Loss of software services
- Total loss of data center location

WFG recognizes the importance of communications and has included in its business continuity plan a communication strategy designed to keep all relevant parties informed.
